4 STIPULATION OF FACTS

- 5 1. Marsha D. Eckelman has been licensed as a teacher in Oregon since July 3, 1978.
6 Eckelman's current Administrator License, with Standard Administrator, is valid 7 October 14, 2010, through October 13, 2015. During all relevant times, Eckelman was 8 employed by the Lincoln County School District.
- 9 2. On May 8, 2010, the Commission received a report from the Lincoln County School 10 District indicating that Eckelman may have failed to make a mandatory report of 11 child abuse.
- 12 3. During the relevant events Eckelman was employed as a Principal for the Lincoln 13 County School District. In that position Eckelman had responsibility for addressing 14 student referrals, the determination of student discipline and handling patron 15 complaints at the building level.
- 16 4. The family of six year old male student in the ESOL-ESL program, a recent 17 immigrant who spoke little to no English, disclosed to school officials, including 18 Eckelman that the child was having problems at home, specifically bed wetting, and 19 had been allowed to use diapers until the age of five.
- 20 5. As additional behavior issues arose with the male student, Eckelman was often 21 involved because of her handling of related referrals, briefings and emails.
- 22 6. Eckelman attended meetings about the student's behavior with involved teachers, 23 aides, other school staff and the parents of the student. These meetings discussed 24 concerns including the bed wetting issue, intentional urination on the bathroom 25 floor, inappropriate touching of other students, and kissing or attempting to kiss
26 other students. Much of these meetings were conducted in Spanish, which Eckelman 27 does not speak, but Eckelman acknowledged she was aware of the issues discussed at 28 these meetings.
- 29 7. Eckelman became aware of an incident where the male student exposed his penis to 30 another student on the school bus. Eckelman addressed the referral from the bus 31 driver two days after the event by "telling the student to keep his hands and feet to 32 himself".
- 33 8. Following these meetings the assembled educators began to devise a plan to deal 34 with the behavior issues including adjusting the seating chart, directly supervising

- 1 recess, monitoring bathroom procedures and increased monitoring of the male
 2 student. None of the involved educators reported these behaviors to DHS or law 3 enforcement.
- 4 9. Eckelman was later investigated by police for failure to report child abuse. Eckelman 5 plead no contest to, and was convicted of, failing to report child abuse, and fined 6 $500.
- 7 10. The involved student was later professionally evaluated by police and the Oregon 8 Department of Human Services. Neither agency was able to determine whether the 9 student was in fact a victim of abuse.
- 10 11. Eckelman explained to TSPC investigators that at the time neither she nor the other 11 involved educators realized that the student's behavior also indicated warning signs 12 of abuse and required a mandatory child abuse report.
- 13 12. Eckelman explained that, looking back on the situation, she realized how she failed to 14 recognize the total seriousness of the student's behavior.
