

1 probation for a period of three years and required to complete
2 alcohol evaluation and treatment.

3 3. On August 2, 1994, Ms. Nash was convicted of the offense
4 of driving under the influence of intoxicants. She was sentenced 5 to 30 days in jail, her driving license was suspended, and she was 6 required to undergo alcohol evaluation and treatment.

7 4. On March 2, 1995, Ms. Nash was convicted of driving with 8 a suspended license.

9 5. On June 2, 1995, Ms. Nash was convicted of resisting
10 arrest. She was sentenced to 30 days in jail to be served
11 concurrently with the 30-day jail sentence for her 1994 conviction
12 for driving under the influence of intoxicants. She was also 13 placed under three years of supervised probation.

14 6. In October 1996, Ms. Nash's probation officer reported
15 to the court that she had successfully completed the court-imposed
16 alcohol evaluation and treatment program.

17 7. In June 1997, Ms. Nash submitted an application for 18 renewal of her Oregon teaching license. On that application, she 19 failed to disclose her convictions for driving with a suspended 20 license and resisting arrest. Ms. Nash acknowledges that she has 21 had an alcohol and/or substance abuse problem and is willing to
