

1 (020), is valid from August 28, 2013, through August 27, 2018. During all relevant times,
2 Meeuwsen was employed by the St. Helens School District.

3 2. On March 19, 2014, the Commission received information from the St. Helens School
4 District indicating Meeuwsen may have committed acts which constitute gross neglect of 5 duty. Commission and District investigations determined the following conduct:

6 a. On or about January 26, 2014, while beginning a new semester of Meeuwsen's
7 citizenship course, Meeuwsen openly questioned a Latina student (ML) about her
8 immigration status. Meeuwsen explained the goal of the lesson was to help 9 students empathize and understand the challenges immigrants face to gain 10 citizenship. Meeuwsen's questioning of ML included asking her if she was 11 "legal", if she had a "green card", if she had a "visa", and what she was doing to 12 become a citizen. This dialog took place in front of the entire classroom and 13 caused significant discomfort and embarrassment for ML.

14 b. During the course of the 2014 investigation, another Hispanic student, PG, 15 complained that she felt set apart in class by how Meeuwsen discussed pay 16 disparity and how female Hispanics were statistically the poorest of all the 17 minority / gender combinations. Meeuwsen explained that he was trying to teach 18 a lesson on inequality and the need for equity, and was leading to a discussion of 19 affirmative action. Students reported Meeuwsen stated something like "so you 20 don't want to be a Hispanic in America", looked over at PG and said "Sorry P". PG 21 stated that Meeuwsen's conduct made her feel embarrassed and uncomfortable in 22 Meeuwsen's classroom.

23 c. School officials reported overhearing Meeuwsen, during the 2012-2013 school 24 year, make a comment in the classroom that Caucasian students need to make 25 more babies in the future because the Asian and Hispanic populations are rapidly 26 growing while the Caucasian population is shrinking. School officials met with 27 Meeuwsen after this and provided counsel.

28 3. Meeuwsen has sought out learning opportunities to help him improve his methods of 29 teaching and discussing sensitive but important topics without causing discomfort or 30 embarrassment to any students. Information indicates Meeuwsen took steps to repair 31 any damage his conduct may have caused in his teaching relationship with involved 32 students.
