On or about September 11, 2009 the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (Commission) received a report from the North Wasco County School District, stating that Michael Lynn Carpenter (Carpenter) made a fraudulent representation regarding a student record.

After review of the matters alleged, Carpenter and the Commission agree that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation to certain facts and the imposition of a Public Reprimand and four year Probation.

By signing below, Carpenter acknowledges, understands, stipulates, and agrees to the following: (i) he has been fully advised of his rights to notice and a hearing to contest the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order set forth below, and fully and finally waives all such rights and any rights to appeal or otherwise challenge this Stipulation of Facts and Final Order of Reprimand (Stipulation and Final Order); (ii) this Stipulation and Final Order is a public document and disclosed to the public upon request by the Commission; (iii) this Stipulation and Final Order is contingent upon and subject to approval and adoption by the Commission. STIPULATION OF FACTS

1. The Commission has licensed Carpenter since August 12, 1977. Carpenter's current Standard Personnel Service License, with a Standard Counselor endorsement, issued on April 16, 2006, is valid until April 15, 2011. During all relevant times, Carpenter was employed by the North Wasco County School District.
2. On August 3, 2009 Carpenter sent a letter to the NCAA Eligibility Center. The letter falsely indicated that an independent study course a student from the North Wasco County School District took was in fact a World Literature (English) course. Carpenter sent this letter in order to help a former graduate maintain his eligibility to play golf at the university level. Carpenter also told the student to state he took the English course if the NCAA asked him about it.

IT IS SO STIPULATED:
