10 On September 15, 2014, the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission
11 (Commission) issued a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing to Jamilah Ameerah Rahim
12 (Rahim) in which the Commission denied Rahim’s application for reinstatement of her right
13 to apply for licensure. The Notice was sent via U.S. First Class Mail and U.S. Certified Mail
14 Receipt 7012 1010 0003 2804 4722 to the address on file with the Commission. The Notice
15 designated the Commission file as the record for purposes of proving a prima facie case. The 16 Certified Mail receipt was returned to the Commission “signed” on October 23, 2014. The 17 first class mail was not returned to the Commission. The Notice of Opportunity of Hearing,
18 dated September 15, 2014, and signed by Victoria Chamberlain, Executive Director, stated:

19 “IF A REQUEST FOR HEARING IS NOT RECEIVED WITHIN THIS 21-DAY
20 PERIOD, YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING SHALL BE CONSIDERED WAIVED
21 UNLESS YOUR FAILURE TO REQUEST A HEARING WAS BEYOND YOUR
22 REASONABLE CONTROL. IF YOU DO NOT REQUEST A HEARING OR IF YOU
23 FAIL TO APPEAR AT A HEARING, THE COMMISSION WILL ADOPT AN ORDER
24 OF DEFAULT WHICH MAY INCLUDE THE REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION OF 25 YOUR LICENSE OR OTHER DISCIPLINE.”
26

27 On November 5, 2014, Rahim requested a hearing. A pre-hearing conference was conducted
28 and a hearing date of June 4, 2015, was established. On April 6, 2015, the Commission
29 received a letter from Rahim’s attorney advising that Rahim was withdrawing her request
30 for a hearing. The Commission, therefore, finds Rahim to be in default and enters the 31 following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and final order, based on the files and records
32 of the Commission concerning this matter.

33 FINDINGS OF FACT

34 On or about June 26, 2006, Rahim signed and submitted a PA-1 form as part of her
35 application to register as a student teacher, upon which Rahim responded “no” to all
36 character questions. As part of the licensing process, the Commission conducted a
37 routine background check and found Rahim had a criminal history. The Commission

1 learned that on August 16, 2005, Rahim was convicted of Theft in the 1st Degree,
2 Identity Theft (3 counts), Forgery (2 counts), and Possession of Forged Instrument (2
3 counts). These convictions stemmed from Rahim's involvement in an operation that 4 defrauded retail stores by stealing credit card numbers and phoning in orders to pick up
5 consumer goods that were later returned for cash. Rahim was ordered to pay restitution
6 of $14,524 and was placed on five years of supervised probation. On October 17, 2005,
7 Rahim was convicted in the state of Virginia for multiple counts of Fraud, Forgery, and
8 Identity Theft stemming from similar criminal activity. Though physically in Virginia
9 and Oregon during the commission of these crimes, Rahim was involved in defrauding
10 stores in Texas, Arizona, Georgia, New Jersey, Illinois, and Arkansas. Based on the 11 foregoing criminal history Rahim's, "no" responses to the following questions were false:

12 #8. Have you ever been convicted or been granted conditional discharge by any 13 court for: a) any felony,; b) misdemeanor; or c) any major traffic violation, such 14 as: driving under the influence of intoxicants or drugs; reckless driving; fleeing 15 from or attempting to elude a police officer; driving while your license was 16 suspended, revoked or used in violation of any license restrictions; or failure to 17 perform the duties of a driver or witness to an accident?

18 #9. Have you ever been arrested or cited for any offense listed in questions (8)
19 above which is still pending in court?

20 #10. Have you ever entered a plea of guilty or No contest relative to any charge of 21 an offense listed in question 8?

22 On August 21, 2009, Rahim submitted a C-1 application form for educator licensure, in 23 support of her application for an Initial I Teaching License. On this form Rahim
24 answered "yes" to the questions which she had answered "no" to on her PA-1 Form.

25 After Rahim submitted her C-1 application form, Rahim had conversations with 26 Commission staff, in which Rahim explained she did not have to disclose her criminal
27 history because it could be expunged. However, at the time Rahim submitted her PA-1
28 form in 2006, Rahim was aware that she had not completed all of the terms of probation
29 and that Rahim's criminal convictions had not been expunged.

1 The Commission denied Rahim licensure because each of her responses on the PA-1
2 form provided independent grounds for denial of Rahim's license application as gross
3 neglect of duty under ORS 342.175(1)(b); OAR 584-020-0040(4)(c) (falsification or
4 misrepresentation related to licensure, employment of professional duties), and OAR
5 584-050-0006(3)(a)(submission of falsified application).

6 The Commission also denied Rahim's licensure because the conduct she engaged in 7 leading up to her convictions, and Rahim's conduct related to student teaching and
8 licensure application demonstrated that Rahim lacked good moral character and fitness
9 to hold a license as required under ORS 342.143(2); OAR 584-050-0006(3)(b) and (d).
10 On November 5, 2010, the Commission adopted a Stipulation of Facts and Denial of 11 Right to Apply in Rahim's case. The Order denied Rahim application for a teaching
12 license, and revoked her right to apply for a license for one year, effective November 24,
13 2010.

14 On March 24, 2014, the Commission received Rahim's application for reinstatement of 15 her right to apply for licensure. On August 1, 2014, the Commission considered Rahim's
16 application for reinstatement of her right to apply for licensure.
17

18 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

19 Jamilah Ameerah Rahim, based upon the conduct as described above;

- 20 1. The Commission denies your reinstatement application for the following reasons:
 - 21 a. The information you submitted, along with your reinstatement documents, do 22 not establish that you possess good moral character, trustworthiness, or 23 physical and mental health to hold an educator's license; and
 - 24 b. The conduct you engaged in that resulted in your revocation.
- 25 2. The above described conduct provides the Commission with evidence of your lack of 26 fitness to serve as an educator pursuant to ORS 342.143(2); OAR 584-050-
27 0006(3)(d) (The Executive Director has evidence that the applicant may lack fitness 28 to serve as an educator).

29 The Commission's authority to impose discipline in this matter is based upon ORS 342.175.

1 FINAL ORDER

2 The Commission hereby denies Rahim's application for reinstatement and revokes
3 her right to apply for licensure.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 15th day of April, 2015.
