

- 1 2. On or about October 20, 2010, Putnam signed and submitted an application to the Commission for 2 licensure in Oregon as a School Psychologist. On April 30, 2010, Putnam was formally advised by the 3 Utah Professional Practice Advisory Commission that he was then under investigation. Putnam
4 answered "no" to question #2 of the Character Questions on his application, which reads: "Are you 5 currently the subject of an inquiry, review, or investigation for alleged misconduct or alleged violation of 6 professional standards of conduct by either an employer or licensure agency?"
- 7 3. On January 6, 2011, Putnam signed a stipulated agreement with the State of Utah admitting that he 8 "forged an administrator's signature on a license renewal form, misappropriated the administrator's 9 social security number and failed to maintain documentation of [his] professional development". As a 10 result of this conduct, Putnam's license in Utah was suspended for one year, and Putnam agreed not to 11 "seek, accept or continue employment in, or serve as a consultant or independent contractor to, the public 12 schools (grades kindergarten through 12th grade) or school districts of any state unless and until [he is] 13 reinstated in Utah." Putnam continued to work for the South Coast Education Service District in 14 violation of this agreement. Putnam further violated this agreement when he applied for employment
15 with the North Bend School District.
