6 On December 2, 1997, the Teacher Standards and Practices

7 Commission (Commission) issued a Notice of Opportunity for

8 Hearing to Amy Ann Bauer (Ms. Bauer). Ms. Bauer requested a

9 hearing to contest the allegation in the Notice. After a review

10 of the matters alleged, the parties have agreed their respective

11 interests, together with the public interest, are best served by

12 a Stipulation to certain facts, a public reprimand, and order of 13 probation. This agreement sets forth the facts upon which the 14 parties have agreed, the sanction to be imposed, and the 15 Commission's Order.

16 In entering this Stipulation, Ms. Bauer understands that she

17 is waiving her right to a hearing and further understands that

18 the Commission will impose the sanctions set forth below. This

19 Stipulation and Proposed Order is subject to review and approval

20 by the full Commission. Should the Commission fail to approve

21 this Stipulation and Order as written, it is understood that any

22 waiver rights by Ms. Bauer is therefore revoked and that the

23 statements in the Stipulation may not be used by the Commission

24 or Ms. Bauer for any reason.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Ms. Bauer violated OAR 584-020-0020(2)(d) and 584-020-0025(2)(a) in her interactions with a fourth grade student on March 6, 1997.

2. Ms. Bauer violated OAR 584-020-0040 by providing false or misleading information on her 1996 application for renewal of her Oregon Teaching License.

DISCUSSION

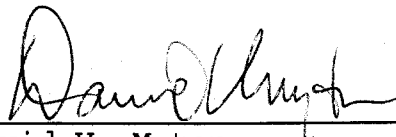

Ms. Bauer acted excessively and inappropriately in her interactions with a fourth grade student when Ms. Bauer was working as a substitute teacher for the Oregon City School District. Ms. Bauer also submitted materially inaccurate information to the Commission concerning the circumstances under which she resigned her position with the Sheridan School District. In imposing a sanction, the Commission takes into account that Ms. Bauer is a relatively new teacher, and that she is currently employed in a teaching position. Based on these

1 considerations, the Commission will impose a public reprimand and 2 period of probation.

3 ORDER

4 The Commission imposes a public reprimand, and this order
5 shall serve as the public reprimand. The Commission also places
6 Amy Ann Bauer on probation for a period of two years from the 7 date of this order. Ms. Bauer's probation shall be subject to 8 the conditions that she obey all laws and comply with all
9 standards for Competent and Ethical Performance of Oregon
10 Educators under OAR 584, Division 20. Failure of Ms. Bauer to 11 comply with any condition of probation may serve as the basis for 12 the Commission to impose additional sanctions up to and including 13 revocation of Ms. Bauer's Teaching License.
