On March 2, 2015, the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (Commission) received a report from the Ontario School District alleging professional misconduct on the part of licensed educator, Margurite Sue Lyons (Lyons).

After review of the matters alleged, Lyons and the Commission agree that their respective interests, together with the public interest, are best served by a stipulation to certain facts and the imposition of a public reprimand.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

1. Margurite Lyons has been licensed by the Commission since July 28, 1983. Lyons' Standard Teaching License, with endorsements in Basic Family and Consumer Studies (018) and Hospitality and Tourism (024), is valid from July 15, 2013,

1 through July 14, 2018. During all relevant times, Lyons was employed by the 2 Ontario School District.

3 2. On March 2, 2015, the Commission received a district report indicating Lyons
4 may have committed acts which constitute gross neglect of duty. Investigation
5 determined that on December 7, 2014, Lyons redeemed a "Kohl's Cash" store
6 credit for the purchase of personal items. The $150 value credit had been earned 7 by the school district during a prior purchase of items for the school's culinary 8 program. It was school district policy that such rebates were the property of the 9 district and should be used to purchase additional materials for the culinary arts 10 program. When the district inquired as to what happened to the $150 Kohl's Cash 11 certificate, Lyons had not been truthful in her responses. On February 19, 2015, 12 Lyons resigned her employment with the Ontario School District in lieu of 13 termination.
