

STIPULATION OF FACTS

- 1. Gordon has been licensed in Oregon since December 21, 1979. Gordon’s current Standard teaching License, with endorsements in Basic Elementary and Standard Speech Impaired, effective on January 16, 2013, will expire January 15, 2018. During all relevant times, Gordon were employed by the Clackamas Education Service District.
- 2. On October 8, 2007, Gordon was hired as a principal for the Long term Care and Treatment Programs in the Clackamas County Education Service District. This position required an Administrator license. Gordon served in this position from October 8, 007 through Mary 12, 2011 without holding an Administrator License.
- 3. On November 2, 2011, the Commission entered a Default Order of Suspension after Gordon failed to request a hearing on a September 20, 2011 Notice of Opportunity for Hearing, which alleged that she worked without an Administrator license as described in paragraph 2.
- 4. On December 8, 2011, and December 19, 2011, Gordon requested a stay of the Default Order of Suspension. On January 3, 2012, Gordon made a late hearing request. On February 3, 2012, the Commission denied Gordon’s late hearing request and request for reconsideration.
- 5. On February 9, 1012 Gordon filed a petition for judicial review of the Commission’s Default Order of Suspension and Denial of Reconsideration. The Commission withdrew its Final Order on November 2, 2012, then entered an Order on Reconsideration on November 5, 2012, denying Gordon’s request for reconsideration of the Default Order of Suspension and request for late hearing. Gordon then filed an Amended Petition for Judicial Review on December 31, 2012.
- 6. The Court of Appeals issued an opinion on October 1, 2014. The Court vacated and remanded for reconsideration the Commission’s November 5, 2012 Order on Reconsideration, but otherwise affirmed the Commission’s order.
