3 rights thereto, or waives any and all rights to consult with an attorney prior to entering into this 4 Stipulation and Final Order and issuance and entry of the Stipulated Final Order below. This 5 Order sets forth the facts upon which the parties have agreed and the sanction to be imposed.
6 In entering into this stipulation, Seagoie waives the right to a hearing to contest the findings of 7 fact, conclusions of law and order set forth below.

8 STIPULATION OF FACTS

- 9 1) The Commission has licensed Seagoie since July 27, 2010. Seagoie holds an Initial I
10 Teaching License, with endorsements in English for Speakers of Other Languages
11 (ECE/ELE) and Multiple Subjects Self-Contained (ECE, ELE), valid July 27, 2010, 12 through September 8, 2013. Seagoie made timely application for renewal of his 13 license, and the expiration of Seagoie's license was pended awaiting the final outcome
14 of the Commission's investigation. During all relevant times, Seagoie was employed
15 by the Harrisburg School District as a substitute teacher and the Junction City 16 School District as a part-time volunteer/contracted cheer coach.
- 17 2) On July 1, 2013, the Commission received a complaint from the administration of the 18 Junction City School District indicating Seagoie may have violated professional 19 standards. Subsequent investigation determined the following:
- 20 a) On or about May 2013, Seagoie learned from female student NE that rumors had 21 been circulating among students alleging Seagoie and NE were having a sexual 22 relationship. After some confirmation that this rumor did exist, Seagoie, asserting 23 the rumor to be false, and reported the information to the Junction City High 24 School principal.
- 25 b) During the 2012-2013 school year, NE was a senior at Junction City High School, 26 and a member of the Cheer team. Seagoie was an independent contractor for the 27 Junction City Cheer program under the supervision of Coach Raquel Cope.
- 28 c) Seagoie developed "Free-stunting practice" after hours and not sanctioned by the 29 school district. Stunting practice included off site practice of stunting and cheer
30 practice at the OSU and U of O facilities for cheer athletes who wanted the extra

1 and advanced practice. The stunting practice was free, required parental 2 permission, and was not associated with the high school's cheer team program.
3 Student NE, and other students participated in the extra stunting activities
4 regularly. Seagoe developed or continued this practice even after being 5 recommended by school district administration and coaching staff that Seagoe
6 could no longer officially work with the cheer team unless Seagoe completed 7 required training courses for coaches.

8 d) Seagoe hosted students at his residence (a family farm also occupied by Seagoe's 9 parents) for bucking hay, hauling wood, after-hour's bonfires and social 10 gatherings, which included student NE. Other students attending these events 11 described Seagoe's relationship with NE as "flirtatious". Seagoe described these 12 events as "hanging out" because Seagoe was friends with these students. Seagoe 13 reports that there were always multiple persons present at these events.

14 e) Seagoe developed a job shadow / student teacher opportunity for NE who had 15 expressed an interest in the teaching profession. Seagoe's job shadow
16 opportunity included NE visiting Seagoe's classroom at the elementary school
17 where NE assisted Seagoe for several hours each day two to three days a week.
18 NE assisted Seagoe in the classroom, grading papers, prepping for classes, and 19 note-taking. NE used her lunch break, her off-period, and, with permission, 20 occasionally during her 5th period class while assisting Seagoe in his classroom.

21 f) Seagoe communicated directly with NE, and other students via, cell phone, and 22 text messages.

23 g) Shortly after NE graduated from high school, Seagoe and NE engaged in a casual 24 dating relationship, that later evolved into a more serious, intimate relationship.
