

1 intentionally or knowingly caused physical injury to J.G., a nine
2 year old son of Huddleston's domestic partner.

3 3. On November 4, 1996, Huddleston entered a guilty plea
4 in Marion County Circuit Court to the charge of Criminal
5 Mistreatment in the First Degree, a Class C Felony. As a result,
6 the court imposed a sentence of 90 days in the Marion County jail
7 and placed Huddleston on supervised probation for a period of 36 8 months subject to the conditions that he abstain from the use of 9 intoxicants, that he have no contact with minors except as 10 approved by the Children's Services Division, that he participate
11 in and complete a counseling program through the Solutions
12 Treatment Program, and that he pay restitution of $1,500 for the 13 cost of counseling for J.G. and J.G.'s brother.

14 In entering this stipulation, Huddleston understands that 15 the Commission will revoke his right to apply for reinstatement 16 of his teaching license as set forth more fully in the 17 Commission's order. This stipulation and the proposed order are 18 contingent on approval by the full Commission. If the Commission 19 does not approve this stipulation and proposed order as written, 20 it is understood that any waiver of rights by Huddleston is 21 therefore revoked. It is further understood that the statements 22 contained in this stipulation may not be used by either party for 23 any reason, should the Commission fail to approve this 24 stipulation and proposed order.

8 CONCLUSION OF LAW

9 The conduct described in the foregoing stipulation
10 constitutes gross unfitness in violation of OAR 584-20-040(5).

11 ORDER

11 RAX

12 Pursuant to ORS 342.175(1) and (3),
13 / The Commission revokes the right of Robert Alan Huddleston
14 to apply for reinstatement of his Oregon Teaching License. If 15 Mr. Huddleston should apply for reinstatement at a future date,
16 the decision would lie within the discretion of the Commissioners 17 who consider the matter at that time. Without limiting the 18 discretion of future Commissioners, it is expected, at a minimum,
19 that Huddleston would present evidence that he has undergone 20 appropriate treatment for anger management, that he has complied
21 with all conditions of his court ordered sentence and probation, 22 that he has complied with all Standards for the Competent and 23 Ethical Performance of Oregon Educators and that he has otherwise 24 conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.
