 9

10 On or about July 18, 2001, the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission
 11 (Commission) received an application for a Transitional Teaching License from Jeffrey
 12 Mark Longmore (Longmore).

13 Mr. Longmore responded “yes” to character question, “1. Have you ever left any 14 educational or school-related employment, voluntarily or involuntarily, while the subject 15 of an inquiry, review or investigation of alleged misconduct or alleged violation of 16 professional standards of conduct or when you had reason to believe such investigation 17 was imminent?

18 Mr. Longmore responded “yes” to character question, “2. Are you currently the subject 19 of an inquiry, review or investigation for alleged misconduct or alleged violation of 20 professional standards of conduct?” Mr. Longmore responded “yes” to character 21 question, “3. Have you ever failed to complete a contract for educational services in 22 any educational or school-related position, or for any alleged misconduct or alleged 23 violation of professional standards of conduct been placed on leave by your employer or 24 left such employment prior to the end of the contract term?” Mr. Longmore responded 25 “yes” to character question, “8. Have you ever been convicted or been granted 26 conditional discharge by any court for: (a) any felony; (b) misdemeanor; or (c) any major 27 traffic violation..., “ Mr. Longmore also responded “yes” to character question, “10. Have

1 you ever entered a plea of guilty or No Contest relative to any charge for an offense
2 listed in question 8.?" Mr. Longmore provided information from Trempealeau County
3 Circuit Court, Wisconsin that he pled no contest to Disorderly Conduct (Class A 4 misdemeanor) and was convicted on April 3, 2001.

5 After review of the facts in this matter, Mr. Longmore and the Executive Director 6 agree that their respective interests, together with the public interests, are best served 7 by a stipulation to certain facts, followed by a probation of two (2) years.

8 This Order sets forth the facts upon which the parties have agreed and the 9 sanction to be imposed. In entering into this stipulation, Mr. Longmore waives the right 10 to a hearing to contest the findings of fact, conclusion of law and order set forth below.
11 Mr. Longmore understands that the Commission will impose a two (2) year probation 12 with specific conditions.

13 This stipulation is contingent upon approval and adoption of the Order by the 14 Commission. If the Commission does not adopt this Order, neither Mr. Longmore nor 15 the Commission are bound by these Stipulations and Mr. Longmore retains all rights to 16 a hearing on the allegations.
